- (ii) the wilful default or fraud of any Affiliate or its directors, officers, employees, contractors or agents.

17 Entire Agreement

Except as otherwise stated herein, these Terms supersede any previous written or oral agreement between the parties and any variations to such agreement in relation to the matters dealt with in these Terms.

18 Invalidity of Provisions

Each provision of these Terms is severable and if any provision of these Terms is or becomes invalid or contravenes Applicable Law, the remaining provisions will not be affected.

19 Rights of Third Parties

Other than an Affiliate, a person who is not a party to these Terms shall have no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any of its terms.

20 Amendments and Assignment

20.1 These Terms may be amended or supplemented by us from time to time by delivery to you of a written notice thereof in accordance with Clause 12.1 and Applicable Law. Subject to the requirements of any Applicable Law requiring your consent to an amendment, any other amendment or supplement will, unless we have received your written objection, take effect on the date we specify, which will be no earlier than ten (10) days after we deliver the notice, and will apply in respect of any commitment,

Transaction or contract entered into by us after that date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, where reasonably considered by State Street to be necessary for compliance with Applicable Law, State Street may also amend these Terms with such amendments to be effective immediately on notice to you. Where we amend or supplement these Terms in accordance with this Clause 20.1, a new version of these Terms will be made available on our website.

20.2 You cannot amend these Terms except by written agreement signed by you and State Street.

20.3 These Terms may not be assigned by you to any person without our prior written consent.

20.4 We may assign, transfer or novate our rights, benefits and/or obligations under or in connection with these Terms or any Transaction to an Affiliate or a third party outside the State Street group provided we act in accordance with Applicable Law and reasonably consider that such a transfer will not materially affect the Foreign Exchange Sales and Trading Services provided to you under these Terms. We may do this on giving you at least 30 days' written notice, provided you have not given written notice terminating these Terms on a date before the proposed assignment, transfer or novation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we are not required to give you notice in the case of an assignment to an Affiliate or a successor in interest in the case of a merger or acquisition, or in the case of a transfer of all or substantially all of our assets (including to a bridge bank or similar entity).

20.5 The obligations under these Terms shall bind, and the rights shall be enforceable by, any permitted assignee or successor to these Terms.

21 Termination

21.1 These Terms shall continue in full force and effect until terminated by us or you by written notice from either party to the other.

21.2 Termination shall be without prejudice to the completion and/or settlement of Transactions already initiated and/or executed and will not affect outstanding rights (including our right to collateral) or obligations. These Terms will apply to such rights and obligations until all Transactions have been closed out, settled or delivery effected and all liabilities have been finally, unconditionally and irrevocably discharged. Transactions already initiated shall be settled in the normal way, except where otherwise provided in these Terms or pursuant to documentation relating to the relevant Transactions.

22 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

22.1 These Terms and the relationship between the parties (including any non-contractual obligations arising out of or relating to these Terms) shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with English law.

22.2 You hereby irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts, which shall have jurisdiction to settle any disputes (including non-contractual disputes) which may arise out of or in connection with the validity, effect, interpretation or performance of these Terms and waive any objection to proceedings in any such court on the grounds of inconvenient forum.

22.3 If you do not have a permanent place of business in England or Wales, you shall at all times maintain, and notify us of, an agent for service of process in England or Wales and, in any event, any claim form, order, petition, judgment or other notice of legal process shall be sufficiently served on you if delivered to any member of your group at its permanent place of business in England or Wales. Nothing in these Terms shall affect the right to serve process in any other manner permitted by law.
