

Currenex[®]

Optimize your FX trading

Access liquidity pools and high-performance technology with Currenex — our award-winning trading system for professional foreign exchange (FX) traders.

Currenex offers aggregate pricing from more than 60 streaming banks and non-banks with liquidity from FXTrades™, our anonymous, all-to-all electronic communication network (ECN). FXTrades is one of the largest anonymous FX trading pools in the world with more than 300 global participants.

Currenex supports real-time FX spot trading in more than 65 currency pairs. Execute trades to suit your personal preferences through executable streaming prices (ESP) and firm orders, or request from stream/request for quote (RFS/RFQ).

Key features:

A flexible trading system with cutting-edge technology and deep liquidity

Aggregate pricing from more than 60 streaming banks and non-banks

Low-latency network with broad connectivity options and messaging protocols

Key benefits:

Comprehensive liquidity and execution capabilities

Currenex offers deep access to liquidity pools – from relationship banks, non-banks and FXTrades – to help you manage your trading objectives. The FXTrades liquidity pool is one of the market’s largest anonymous trading pools, comprising hundreds of professional market participants.

Our patented technology provides multiple connectivity routes and the ability to aggregate anonymous and disclosed liquidity into single or multiple order books. Whether you execute trades via ESP and firm orders or RFS/RFQ, our streamlined suite of execution capabilities is well-positioned to meet your trading objectives.

Innovative technology

Currenex delivers a robust trading experience supported by a low-latency network and underpinned by high-performance technology. Our connectivity options and messaging protocols can be tailored to suit your trading objectives. We continually invest in new technologies and initiatives to help drive the FX industry forward.

Dedicated customer service

With a follow-the-sun model of client support, Currenex sales desks are available whenever you may need them in Asia, Europe and the United States. Our teams in London, New York, Singapore and Tokyo provide 24/6 coverage. The local team of experts provides support for your liquidity, trading or platform needs along with regional language support in some areas.

Market data

Access an independent and unbiased view of the most widely available prices, orders and trading activities across various liquidity pools with CurrenexNOW, our premium market data solution. It provides real-time, streaming order book data feed offering precision, trade updates (paid/given) with bucketed size, a Currenex Weighted Average Mid-Rate (WAMR), and insight into order book density surrounding WAMR.

Private label services

Our technology is available as a comprehensive private label service for financial intermediaries seeking enhanced access to financial markets.

The private label business leverages our technology to provide brokers, banks and financial institutions with sophisticated access to the FX, US Treasury, digital asset, money and precious metals markets, and the ability to operate a trading venue. Our robust, customizable and easily deployable technology eliminates the need for hardware investment, allowing you to focus on what matters.

Currenex is a market-leading provider of high-performance technology and deep liquidity pools to professional FX traders. Our award-winning platform allows clients to aggregate pricing from more than 60 streaming banks, non-banks, and liquidity from our anonymous ECN — FXTrades, into a single consolidated Central Limit Order Book.

The private label business leverages our technology to provide brokers, banks and financial institutions with sophisticated access to the FX, US Treasury, digital asset, money and precious metals markets, and the ability to operate a trading venue.
